will be delighted to explore Stonington, Connecticut. This beautiful village on a large harbor dates back to the Revolution. Its history is very similar to that of Fairhaven at that time because it also was invaded by a British man o' war and, as did the people of Fairhaven, Stonington's populace fought the ship's crew off and drove

Top...This home would be right at home in the deep south amid the magnolias and fields of cotton. The classical columns frame the wide porch and fit in very well with the classic, simpler lines of the 1700s.

Right...The '76 flag that this home flies is a clue to its origin and to many of those that surround it.

them from the town. The walk through this village is like a walk through a time warp. Many of the homes date from the 1700s and are marked with the owner's name at that period. As you progress, however, you will discover every style of every period. The diversity is impressive. Through the years, the seafaring people of this village according to taste and individuality blended almost the whole gamut into the total beautiful result that is now being restored by affluent new owners.

To reach Stonington you can go by way of Newport, over the Newport Bridge and the Jamestown Bridge to Route 1 south through Westerly to Stonington, which is 4 miles this side of Mystic, about a 2 hour drive.

A second route is 195 to 95 south to the Westerly exit.

Stonington's harbor is a very large one and looks to be in the middle of changeover from a working port to a pleasure port. The bows of these fishing boats overlook the inner harbor which is fairly well covered by sailboats and cruisers and dotted along the shore with boatyards and marinas.

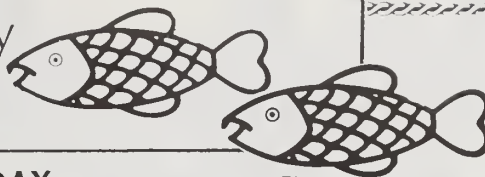

As the wealthy people move in to buy up the charming homes, the fishermen are being moved out. DCJ Photos

Fire Dept. Regulations Discussed

MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
JULY 23, 1991

Selectmen met with Fire Chief Donald Wood to discuss new proposed regulations drawn up and brought in by the Chief. Chief Wood said that the regulations were designed to implement operating procedures so that on the site everyone on the squad would know exactly what to do and would know what is expected of him. Chief Wood said, "We are trying to get something to work from." He explained that in the past, lack of something written and understood had resulted in morale problems and in misunderstanding in the field. Mr. Wood said that another advantage would be that his officers could act to give him some needed help if they clearly understood their authority and the procedure to carry out the chief's orders when he cannot be present. He said that there are 4 companies with a captain and a lieutenant for each, a total of 27 people with 10 officers.

Chief Wood said that, at the scene of a fire, he cannot be everywhere to oversee the entire force so that he needs to have informed officers who can give him a hand. He said, "I believe even the smallest department must have rules and regulations." Selectman Daniel Mahoney asked the source of the regulations. The chief replied that they are taken from the National Fire Protection Association. Mr. Mahoney asked that the chief furnish them with a copy of this document so that the selectmen could read it. He also said that the rules should make it clear that there should be no change in the authority of the selectmen to hire, fire and appoint all personnel of the fire department using the recommendations of the chief to guide them. The officers and the chief have had 3 meetings to draft the rules and regulations. It was agreed that a final draft should be made before taking it to the department personnel for suggestions.

MOBILE VENDORS

Executive Secretary Carol Adams said that she had taken a ride to the wharf with Chief of Police James Moran to discuss possible vendor parking spaces. She had pointed out the proposed areas and Chief Moran had no problem with the space by the dinghies but did see problems with the space on Short Wharf. He had said that he was concerned that the tight place might be dangerous with cars going through and kids crowding into their path. Mrs. Adams said that the chief also said that any temporary chains or posts would end up overboard. He also asked how such a regulation would be enforced.

The selectmen decided that, of all the days of the week, only one presented any problem and that day was Thursday when the teen dance drew transient vendors to the wharf. Dana Tripp, who was present, said that as many as 4 transient vendors come to the wharf on that night. Mr. Tripp is the owner of the "Ice Cream Slip", a mobile van who operates under contract to the town and is required to pay for lights, space rental, trash pick-up under this agreement.

Selectmen decided that the difficulties outweighed the problem, at present. They will monitor the times the vendors appear and the days for the balance of the season. In fairness to Mr. Tripp, at his request, they will require that transient vendors close down at 10:30 p.m., the same time that Mr. Tripp is required to close under his agreement with the town. Police will enforce the closing time for all vendors. POLICE CONTRACT REVIEWED

Selectmen received a summary of the new police contract which will be ready for signing at their next meeting. GRANT PREPARATION

Harbormaster Steven Mach will present a proposed grant application for a boat sewage pump-out facility at the town wharf at the next selectmen's meeting. The proposed $12,100 station would pump into the town sewer line. Applications will be made

STRIPED BASS CAUGHT OFF WHARF

This 34 pound, 49½" striped bass met its match at 10:15 p.m. on July 3rd, and is likely to drive those fishermen crazy who invest in high powered boats and the fuel to access the far reaches of the bay...
After a half hour fight, Bill Harris of Mat-tapoissett landed it at Long Wharf using a 30 pound test line. ("It was delicious.")

Thank You!

I would like to publicly thank all the wonderful and caring people who planned and were involved in the Appreciation Day that was held for me. It was a tremendous surprise and touched me deeply. The program involving the children and students of our communities meant so much to me, because they are the most important asset we have and are the future of our towns. We must continue to invest in them in order to make our country the best it can be. I realize so much work went into planning this day. It will remain in my heart forever. You were all so very wonderful and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Victorian Lawn Party

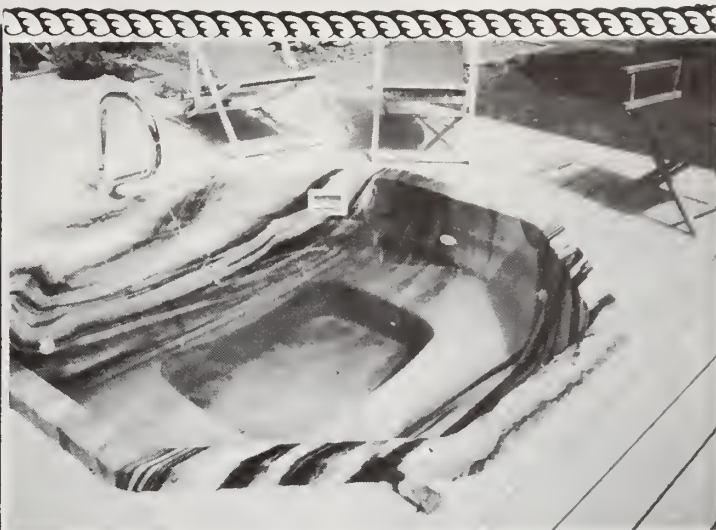

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

It's time to mark your calendars for a trip back into yesteryear. The Sippican Woman's Club cordially invites you to a Victorian Lawn Party to be held on the grounds of Handy's Tavern, the club's meeting house, on Front Street in Marion Village, Saturday, August 17th, from 11:00 until 3:00.

Take a break from the beach and come back to a time at the turn of the century when life was slower but filled with wonderful things to do. Have you ever listened to a Hurdy-Gurdy Man, tried your hand at a Bean Bag Toss, had a Gypsy tell your fortune? Besides the many activities which are planned for you, including a children's craft corner and exciting Victorian photo opportunities, there will be yummy things to eat such as cotton candy, popcorn and a light luncheon which will be served inside the newly refurbished Handy's Tavern.

So, come as you are or perhaps get into the spirit by finding something to wear of an earlier time. Come to sip lemonade under the shade of Marion's lovely old trees and enjoy the cooling breezes from the waterfront.

Tickets for all events will be reasonably priced and will be available that day in the yard at the Tavern. Tickets for the luncheon will be available at the front door of the Tavern.

'50s Day in New Bedford

Volunteers are hard at work on preparations for the Third Annual United Way '50s Day in New Bedford. The event will be held on Thursday, August 8th, and will be free to the public, and will take place on Purchase Street in the heart of the historic downtown area. Many downtown businesses have teamed up with the United Way to provide this trip down memory lane for the residents of southeastern Massachusetts.

Last year more than 8,000 people enjoyed the fun and festivities of '50s Day. Due to an expanded list of activities, an even larger crowd is expected to attend this year's event. According to United Way President Craig Dutra, "This year, '50s Day, which is already the biggest nostalgia event in the area, will be even larger. We are doubling the activities, including the festivities for children. There will be something for everyone!"

'50s Day will officially begin at 11:30 a.m. with a stage show on the steps of the library's main branch on Pleasant Street. WNBH personality Captain Jack will be featured, along with live music by the band "Runaway". Spectators will be entertained by a hula hoop demonstration by Jane Kirby and a fun-filled hula hoop contest. Another special attraction will be the United Way's "Second Annual '50s Day Eat 'n Run Restaurant Race", in front of City Hall on William Street.

Throughout the day downtown businesses will offer promotions to benefit the United Way. A partial list of features includes 25 cent hamburgers at McDonald's, Dorothy Cox candies at '50s prices, souvenir items at Elaine's T-Shirts and food and drink specials at Freestone's and Muldoon's. Orren Robbins, publisher of the Standard-Times and chairman of the 1991 United Way Campaign, has also announced that his paper will once again publish a souvenir edition with news and ads from the 1950s. Proceeds will be donated to the United Way.

At Wing's Court in the afternoon, children will be charmed by games, face painting and other activities, while their parents enjoy the music of Sam's Giant Juke Box. From 2 p.m. through the evening, the BayBank parking lot will rock with

New Bedford in the 1950s and 1960s."

In addition to the cruising and display of classic automobiles, live music will be provided from a stage on Purchase Street.
The crowds will dance to the beat of the bands "Wildcard" and "The Islanders".
Those at the sock hop at the Bank of Bos-

Music Machine and "The Graduates". Everyone is invited to dress up in their best
'50s outfits and to come join in the fun.

Coordinator for Project GROW, as an outstanding teacher of multi-ability/multi-level groups.

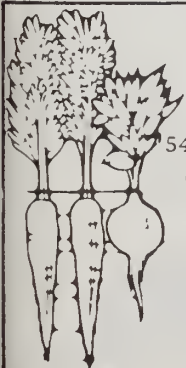

In response to a documented community need and funded through a Massachusetts Department of Education Chapter 188 Early Childhood Discretionary Grant, Project GROW opened its classroom doors on February 1, 1988. Located at the Sippican School in Marion, this marked the first public school involvement in pre-school education in the Old Rochester Regional School District. Continued state funding as well as support from the local school districts has enabled the program to operate to the present.

In being named a Laboratory Fellow, Mrs. Moody will receive a $500 honorarium to be applied toward her choice of a professional enrichment activity. Her name will be featured in the booklet, "Outstanding Teaching Practices Series: Teachers of Multi-Ability Groups in Grades PK-5".

Campus, the associate degree program is allied with the Physical Therapy Department at St. Luke's Hospital. The general education requirements of the program are taught at Newbury's New Bedford High School location, while the professional courses are conducted at St. Luke's Hospital by members of the Physical Therapy staff.

The evening program, designed for the convenience of adult students with daytime obligations, has been developed to meet the growing community need for trained assistants to work with the registered physical therapists in such fields as sports medicine, neurology, pediatrics, and geriatrics. It also offers wider opportunities for students, many already working in the PT field, to attain a degree and to prepare for the state licensure examination.

Zeiterion Youth Festival

"ONCE UPON A TIME"

Puppeteer Marshall Izen presents his enchanting show, "Rainbows, Rabbits & Riddles", on Wednesday, August 7th, at 10:30 a.m. at New Bedford's Zeiterion Theatre. Shaw's Supermarkets returns as sponsor of this year's summer youth festival, "Once Upon a Time".

A favorite performer every summer at the Zeiterion, Izen studied music at Juilliard and at DePaul University. For five years he had his own award-winning program on CBS in Philadelphia. He also has won two Emmys for his television work, and a coveted Cine Golden Eagle for his animated film, "The Isle of Joy".

Izen credits French artist Henri Matisse with inspiring him to turn scraps of paper into the basis for his puppet shows. By using cut-out paper, paper bags and bits of clothing to create his puppets, Izen hopes to unlock the imagination of children. The Masters of Arrangements greatest musical artists.

His latest production, "Rainbows, Rabbits & Riddles" is full of surprises - a lion comes to life with the music of Johann Strauss; giant paper bag animals act out an original folk tale; and a pop-up mystery ends with a magical double rainbow.

"Once Upon a Time" concludes on Wednesday, August 14th, with "The Incredible Merlin Magic Show". Tickets are $5.00 each, general admission. Group rates are available. For tickets call the Zeiterion box office at 994-2900. Tickets are also available at all Ticketmaster locations or by calling Ticketmaster at (617) 931-2000.

The Zeiterion has also planned a special event - "Hands on! Family Theatre Day" with the Children's Museum of South Dartmouth in conjunction with Marshall Izen's show on Wednesday, August 7th. For $10.00 ($8.00 for museum members) children and adults can enjoy the Zeiterion show at 10:30 a.m., then can bring a picnic lunch to the museum grounds, followed by a puppet workshop from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m. at the Children's Museum. There will be two workshops held simultaneously - one for children ages 2-4 and another for children ages 5-12. To register for this fun event call the Children's Museum, 276 Gulf Road, South Dartmouth at 993-3361.

The Zeiterion Theatre is located at 684 Purchase Street in Historic, downtown New Bedford. The theatre is wheelchair accessible.
